

A PARENT'S GUIDE TO SERVICES IN NORTH EAST ESSEX

Summer 2021

This directory has been compiled by Colchester Parent Support working in collaboration with The MAZE Group CiC and parents of children with additional needs.

The purpose of the directory is for parents to provide other parents with information about community based services and organisations available to them in North East Essex. Some services and therapies are available from Statutory Services, we would always recommend seeking access information from your health or education professional. The NHS provides children's services which are free to access for all.

The MAZE Group CiC

The MAZE Group is a Community Interest Company of parents who support other parents/carers of children/young people with SEND. We offer a weekly specialist programme; a course about the SEND system; online short videos; webinars; workshops; individual consultations; information and news online/via social media and on our website. We have a team of trained, experienced Parent Mentors who attend the sessions to offer additional support. We work in collaboration with Colchester and Harwich Parent Support and colleagues and parents in Clacton to provide free monthly drop-in sessions and coffee mornings/evenings for ongoing advice and support.

The Ministry of Parenting

The Ministry of Parenting works with parents in the Colchester area who find parenting a challenge due to the behavioural needs of their child. i.e., ADHD, self-harm, tantrums, managing the teenage years. We deliver a range of funded (no cost to parents) parenting groups/workshops. We also work with young people who self-harm. Groups are grant funded, no charge to attendees. Parent Coaching is a paid for service. The Ministry of Parenting is led by a small friendly team of professionals.
